“ Uncle Arthur you were truly a great man. You taught me how to two step on the dance floor. The joy on your face while playing the drums. To your impressive art work. Movie nights at the house and how you would tell us all about the movie while it was happening. The yummy dip you made for the movie night snack. To making the holidays a kid only dreams of. Helping anyone without question. Giving people a safe place to lay their heads while trying to figure out their lives. To you unforgettable laugh and a smile that lights up the room. Thank you for so many great memories you are truly loved and missed by us all. Until we meet again keep watching over us all. We love you! Danielle, Matthew and Zander Deford
