“ I am the youngest and Dale and I were 7 yrs apart, but we had our times. He was in to archery, making his own bows and such. I talked him in to teaching me to use it. Boy, you sure learn quick how to shoot an arrow. I burned my forearm the very first time. HA! That smarts!!

I helped him pair the back side of the house once. Wasps pestered us but we managed not to get stung. Fun! Fun!

When I was a teen, we both dated brother and sister from Joplin! Believe it or not, we double dated! We had some good times. I am going to miss my brother but we still have you boys and your families. Stay in touch and be close to one another. Remember, we all love you all! ❤️

So sorry for your loss. Dale was just 3 yrs older than me growing up and we were together a lot. Then when he and your mom got married ,we all spent a lot of time together making memories. Will miss talking to him on the phone. Love you all. Aunt Barb
