“ I met Clifford back in the '70s, maybe '80s, when he was a student at PSU in an American fiction class. Our class discussions developed into a friendship and many enjoyable, warm conversations each time our paths crossed in subsequent years. I had not seen him for quite some time and just assumed he had left Pittsburg. I was shocked and saddened to learn of his passing. As many others have said, Clifford was a happy soul who always brightened up whatever place he was in. He brought much joy to those who knew him during his time here with us. My deepest sympathy to his family. I hope that their many fond memories of him will be a source of comfort and support as they grieve his passing. Rest In Peace, My Friend.

“ Clifford was quite a character and I mean that in a good way. We worked together at Dickey Clays and Clifford always came in to work with a happy attitude. No matter what kind of work they gave him to do, he never complained. They put him on one of the hardest jobs there and he had a smile on his face as he slaved away. If he looked up and see you walk by, he would holler a greeting and laugh and keep on working. I don't believe I ever seen him depressed.

I lost track of him after we all left Dickey's but once in a while I would see him at Walmart or some other business place and he would always holler at me.

I was so glad when he became a preacher. I am sure he is really rejoicing now. My prayers are with the family.

Thank you so much for providing this video. I'm disappointed that I didn't find out about the service until afterwards. Clifford was one of the first kids that I met when we were moved to Pittsburg. We both went to the COGIC by the tracks on 11 th street. I grew up with Clifford, went to school with him. He had a nickname for my mother (Audrey Scroggins or Granny K ), he called her Matt Dillon. Clifford was a changed man, but he had two grandfathers that showed him the way. He will be missed.

“ I will miss my Uncle Clifford so very much. I'll miss his joy, his voice, his laugh, and his own way of saying things. For those that may not know he loved black and white films and Sidney Poitier.

“ Cliff worked with my late husband Richard Henry and the late Winston Taylor doing concrete work in Pittsburg. They always had a good time working together. I'm sure all three are together again telling stories and enjoying their life eternal together. They are all three sadly missed.

“ There are no words to describe how special Cliff was to us although we only knew him for a short time. The love of God was so strong in him and he gave it so freely. He was an angel for our Dad, Frank, during his time at VCV. We always had a small portion of peace knowing Cliff was looking out for him. Joyce, your love and devotion as a couple was an inspiration. A light has gone out in this world,, but we know God*s choir is much sweeter sounding. Joyce, we are so sorry for your loss.
