“ This is such sad news to hear. Dan touched so many lives it would be impossible to know all that benefited from his wit, his passion, his drive, his intelligence, and love. It is also impossible to share the literally thousands of memories of my mentor. I could literally write a book of the memories, life lessons, tough love, and loyalty! I will just say the "Dan the Man" was one of a kind, there will never be another one like him, and the world is a better place for him having been here! I love you, Man!!!

“ I am so sorry to hear this. Dan was a great person and has been a friend since we went to kindergarten, carpooling together. I knew his whole family from school, church and neighbors. Sending comforting prayers to the family.
My deepest sympathy to Barb, Carol, Valerie and all of Dan's family.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of Dan. Although I never met him in person, through sharing of stories about him, I felt as if I knew him in some way. I know he meant the world to you and that your world will not be the same without him. The memories you built and time shared together will be forever priceless. May you see Dan in the beauty of everyday and may you find comfort in the love that was present throughout his time on earth. There is another angel among us.
