“ Dave was a very caring man that was always ready to help and give advice.

These are some of his coworkers from America West Airlines.

Dave, thank you for the laughs and the many things you helped me with.

I wondered what happened to Dave . So sorry , Dave snd I and Don carman were best friends , and I am grateful to his family to rally around Dave in his final months. We all led seperative lives but Dave and Don were always ready to hop on a plane and go somewhere to have fun . So sorry , looks like I am the last one standing .No fun being the last one.
