

Dennis Dean Gibbs

February 2, 1958 - July 23, 2016

GOLDEN CITY, MO - Dennis Dean Gibbs, 58, a carpentry salesman, died Saturday, July 23, 2016 in Joplin. Arrangements are by Midland Cremation Society of Joplin.

Tribute Wall

DG

“ dennis was one of my favorite grandpas i loved him to death i wish he was still here when he was living with us the day before he died we were suppose to play chess together but we never got to. i miss him i really do. i miss dc my dad. dc is my father and always will be when my mom left him he spent his last year searching for me. i love them both and wish that they were still here.. im crying while im writing this.

---

dennis gibbs - November 19, 2019 at 05:08 PM

JG

“ Dennis was my big brother who I loved very much. Some of you my not no this but iam here to tell you he was a hounry .when he was around 10 years old he would leave and come back with donuts for me and Norman we were so happy to get them they were good.I would ask him where he got them he told me the lady at the store gave them to him it was not till I was in my 50's that he told me where he really got the donuts.
So the real truth of the story is he was getting them out of the trash
LOL,LOL
I said WHAT he said they were good wasn't they

---

Julie Gibbs - July 30, 2016 at 01:34 PM

DG

hey aunt julie how are u its dennis dc son

---

dennis gibbs - November 19, 2019 at 05:03 PM

SH

“ Dennis was one of most caring person,with a big heart that love to have fun and loved his cigarettes among other things he liked to do. There is one thing you didn't want to do.and that was to piss him off OH BOY IF YOU DID YOU BETTER RUN LOL ya i know susan im his grandson dennis gibbbs dc little boy im 12 how are u

---

Susan Higgins - July 30, 2016 at 01:06 PM

DG

---

dennis gibbs - November 19, 2019 at 05:02 PM