“ Gary was a great guy, wonderful friend, would do anything for you. I wish I had known before today, I would have come to say goodbye. I know you are in heaven with Chris and having fun hanging out with Bob and Don. Till we meet again my friend.

“ It's a damn shame that Gary's obituary is so short he was much more deserving of that. Gary was a kind considerate friend who would help anyone in need a great mechanic and who always opened his home and his heart to anyone that needed it he always had a laugh he always had a story and a shoulder to cry on if you needed it he'll be greatly missed and appreciated always

Misty, I'm 100 percent in agreement with you. Gary was an amazing man. he had a heart bigger than any I've seen in years. He gave to those that didn't deserve a second of his time. He always had an ear or a hug at just the right time. The right words to say in a prayer. I'm blessed to have known him for the years I did. He served so much more in his obituary as he deserved so much more in his life, the years I knew him anyway. Where are all of those that were around especially after he was put on hospice. Where is the love that all them said they had for him? I'm not seeing on here for sure!!!! I guess you truly gotta love someone, and not just what they have to offer you, in order to speak out for them. I love you Gary, your a beautiful soul, and will be greatly missed. Red balloons coming your way my dear friend
