I meet Jim for the first at our bait shOp at number 10 Bridge.

That was about 45 years ago. We became very good friends after that and a lot of time fishing. I must is was little crazy, but that who he was. He always called me Bubba. I will differently miss him and the good old times. Gary Willard

He was my grandfather. The more I learned about him the more everything made sense. I hope he can see the big picture now.
