

James W. Hitt

September 5, 1949 - June 3, 2023

James Warren Hitt, aged 73 years, a life well-lived. He fought the good fight and finished the race. His unwavering commitment to his beliefs was evident through his love for the Lord, which guided his actions and brought him solace and strength.

Notably, Jim Hitt embraced love fully and without restraint. His affectionate nature touched the lives of those around him, particularly his daughters who were the source of immense joy in his life. Their happiness and well-being were of paramount importance to him, and his love for his family was profound. He was preceded in death by his mother Marie Starnes, father James Hitt Jr, and daughter Jeana Hitt. Survived by sisters Julie, and Janice; and brother Randy. He has one surviving Daughter, Dawn Eastridge as well as four granddaughters; Amanda, Lauren, Megan, and Olivia. And five great grandchildren.

In addition to his devotion to his family, James Hitt found purpose and fulfillment in his involvement with the motorcycle ministry Born to Die. This ministry brought together our brothers and sisters in Christ, who shared a common faith in our Lord, and a passion for motorcycles. It provided a platform for him to combine his love for the Lord with his enthusiasm for motorcycles.

As James Warren Hitt's journey on this earth comes to a close, his love, devotion, and spiritual outlook will be deeply missed. His impact on the lives of those who knew him will continue to resonate, leaving behind a legacy of love, resilience, and unwavering faith.

I Love you Daddy You fought the good fight and finished the race.
