“ I only have memories of my best friend Bill Ash, Janice's brother. He loved her and spoke highly of her, so she is my sister, too.

“ Janice was always trying to teach us all new things. Her years of life experience as a nurse and caregiver allowed her to share her love and generous nature with others during their times of trial. She lived with, and cared for our grandmother for many years, until she died. She cared for our father and mother through their last years. She cared for our brother Randy, until he passed. She cared for so many. God blessed her with talents that most of us would have trouble refining and using; but she used them as God directed. She is with our Lord now. She has been a good and faithful servant! God bless you, Sis!
