

Jason Wayne McCormick

July 20, 1969 - June 11, 2026

Jason Wayne McCormick, 56, passed away on June 11, 2026.

He was born on July 20, 1969, in Medford, Oregon, to Ronald and Sheryl McCormick.

Jason was a beloved husband, father, grandfather, son, brother, uncle, and friend. Though he filled many roles throughout his life, his favorite titles were Dad and Papa Jase.

Jason was known for his strong personality, quick wit, and ability to make people laugh. He never met a stranger and could strike up a conversation with just about anyone. He loved telling stories, sharing advice, and spending time with the people he cared about most.

He was especially proud to be a McCormick. Family meant everything to him, and he carried great pride in both his family name and the people who shared it.

Jason had a deep love for gardening and the outdoors. Whether tending a garden, fishing, or simply enjoying nature, he found joy in life's simple pleasures.

Scammon Holiness Mission Church held a special place in Jason's heart. The church was deeply rooted in his family's history, and because of that legacy, it remained meaningful to him throughout his life. His faith provided comfort and strength through both joyful and difficult seasons.

One of Jason's greatest joys was being Papa Jase. He loved his grandchildren dearly and treasured the time he spent with them, as well as the many children who passed through his home over the years.

Jason is survived by his loving wife, Jaimy Wilkinson; his children, Jade (Andrew) Elmore, Abigail Cauthon (Greg) Jones, and Jacob Cauthon; his cherished grandchildren; his parents, Ronald and Sheryl McCormick; his sisters, Sherice Knight, Leah Knight, and Lindsey Hetrick; and many other family members and friends who will miss him dearly.

He was preceded in death by his grandfathers, Bill McCormick and Ray Mitchell; his grandmothers, Imogene McCormick and Dorothy Mitchell; his uncle, Gary McCormick; his cousin, Chris McCormick; and his nephew, Julius Hetrick.

A visitation will be held on June 19, 2026, at 4:00 p.m., followed by a memorial service at 5:00 p.m. at Scammon Holiness Mission Church, 217 Sixth Avenue, Scammon, Kansas 66773.
