“ My memory of Johna started when she arrived at my clinic with Lymphedema. I had the privilege of getting to know her and spend an hour visiting with her on not only a personal level but also a spiritual level. She pushed me to a greater level and always reminded me that God is in control of everything. I will truly miss her and will look forward to seeing her again in heaven and know that she is up in heaven praising God! Love and prayers to each of her family!
