“ Kaylene was a determined, spunky, witty little gal. She was fun to talk to. I know she adored her daughter and grandbaby. May God comfort and keep her family until they all meet again in Heaven.

“Kaylene was a great person, She had sparkle in eyes and smile that would catch any persons eye, very witty we clicked from the 1st time we met. Kaylene was a Nurse took her job very serious all her patient's loved the care & compassion that they derserved while in her care. Kaylene loved her two children Dustin & Alisha. Kaylenes favorite was Sloane her 1st Granddaughter' she was looking forward to spoiling het at the time of passing. Kaylene always fought for what was right even if it could be wrong she had a way about convinceing them that everyone was right. Kaylene loved photography, doggies, Kaylene loved music and dancing which she was very good at. I Miss You My Soulmate. Love ya forever my Wife. Someday I'll Melt Away Into The Lost Horizon With You. LOVE Jimmy
