Kirsten was very athletic. She really excelled at sports. Being on the diamond though was where she felt most at home. Kirsten was loved by many and many love her.. The smile she would give though her days seemed rough made everyone see that the fight will never stop in a warrior. everyday has a beginning and every night has an end there wasn't a day that went by you didn't grab ahold of the day and bring it to a flawless end.. The bright beautiful light through the day was you and the night shine from the moon as well..you. You will forever be loved and missed.
