I am so lost for words. Daddy said, " duck tape could fix everything" I learned this week it cant fix a broken heart. But a man that doesn't know are family told me, your daddy was still right. Ductape holds a broken heart together to stop the bleeding. I am still bleeding tonight of a broken heart, but the tape is helping to stop the bleeding

AN

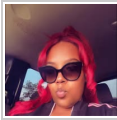

“ My name is Anne and I am one of Shirleen's caregivers. I have been privileged enough to be present when Shirleen had talked to her Dad via FaceTime. What struck me was seeing his eyes light up when he heard Shirleen's voice. I was there a few times during these calls and sometimes Luther wasn't having such a good day, but when he heard Shirleen's voice, there was pure joy in his voice. I wish I had gotten the opportunity to meet him in person but Shirleen has shared so many precious memories with me of both her Mom and Dad that I feel honored that I got to share a small piece of the memories she holds so dear. God Bless you Luther.

Brought me to tears, yes he would. Ask Shirleen about the Orange bathingsuit, spinning like a top on her head, and John Alaverez

“ I have so many wonderful memories of my Dad, Luther P. Street. I remember how hard he worked to provide for my Mom and all seven of his children. I never went to bed hungry; I always had a roof over my head, and food to eat. My Dad taught me how to drive a car and had so much patience with me when I got behind the wheel. He was never afraid to show love for me and all my brothers and sisters, no matter how tired he might have been after a long day at work. My Dad was the perfect example of a man; my sons (his grandsons) grew up knowing how important it was to treat others with love and respect. He was always there for me, in good times and bad and I remember where he was 17 years ago when I had suffered a stroke and became wheelchair-bound. He and my Mom were right by my side in the hospital and he refused to let them pull the plug, even though the doctors said I wouldn't make it ... He knew differently. And here I am 17 years later, still alive, and my Dad's love will always be with me. I'll love you always, Dad.
Your daughter,
Shirleen

“ GONE, but will never be forgotten

To those I love, now that I am gone just release me, let Me go-so I can move into my afterglow. You mustnt tie me down with your tears. let's be happy that I had so many years.

i gave you my love: you can only guess how much you gave me in happiness. I thank you for the love you each have shown., but now it's time traveled on alone. So grieve for me awhile, if grieve you must, then let your grief be comforted with trust.

Grief be comforted with trust. It's only for a while that we must part, so bless the memories within your heart. And then, when you must come this way alone, I'll greet you with a smile and a "Welcome Home My Children".

FOR MY MOTHER, THAT SHE WROTE ABOUT MY DAD BEFORE HE DEATH.

MY HUSBAND

*MY HUSBAND MADE ME LAUGH,
MADE ME CRY,
WIPED MY TEARS, HUGGED ME TIGHT,
WATCHED ME SUCCEDD,
SEEN ME FAIL,
CHEERED ME ON,
KEPT ME GOING STRONG, AND DROVE ME CRAZY.*

HUSBANDS ARE A PROMISE FOR GOD THAT YOU WILL HAVE A FRIEND FOREVER.

THIS IS IN MEMORY OF MY MOTHER SYLVIA JEAN STREET, MY FATHERS FIRST AND ONLY LOVE.
