

Patricia (Patti) Rae Haner

August 16, 1948 - May 19, 2016

Patricia (Patti) Rae Haner, of Carthage, MO., beloved mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend, passed from this life on Thursday, May 19, 2016 at Joplin Gardens, Joplin, MO.

Patti was born on August 6, 1948 in Claremore, OK, to William and Laura (Heape) Bryant.

She made her home in Claremore, Inola, and Collinsville, Oklahoma before moving to Carthage, MO.

Patti was an ordained minister for many years, touching countless lives by being an amazing example of Christ's unconditional love.

She also worked for a period of time as a purchasing manager at Matrix Service in Catoosa, OK before retiring. She spent her life, loving and caring for her family and friends.

Patti loved to fish on Claremore and Oologah lakes on the weekends with her family. She also enjoyed going to flea markets and collecting antiques. She liked to care for her beautiful house plants and gardening.

Patti was preceded in death by her parents Bill and Ninny, and twin brothers, Hershel (Steve) and William (Sid), whom she adored tremendously.

Surviving to honor her memory are her loving daughter and son, Lori Brown and husband, David of Broken Arrow, OK and Jeremy Haner and wife, Andrea, of Carthage, MO; grandchildren, Johnathan Taylor, Laura Leighanne Castleberry, and Patrick Taylor; sisters in law, Sandy Bryant and Sandy Kleck; nieces and nephews; Anna Bryant, Katie Bryant, Austin Bryant, William Bryant and John Bryant; great aunt to twins, Madisyn and Brooklyn Bryant, Sydnie Bryant, Jax Bryant, Kenyon Wasson, and Kamryn Stafford.

Tribute Wall

“ Patti was my friend as a child. I remember in grade school when she had those curly little pig tails hair-do. I think her mom had a picture of her and the boys in their home with her pig tail do. We lost touch after high school but I always remember her mom, Patti and Patti's aunt Gail. We had a lot of fun. ”

Linda Huey - June 04, 2016 at 11:36 AM