“ I met Paul Adam's in 1988 as we began a journey as casual workers at Yellow Friehht. We worked countless hours together on the dock at Baxter Springs sometimes 16 hrs. Paul always made the time go by quickly and never had a lack for words! He was big man with a bigger heart and was a very special friend. We were both raising our young families and starting out on our lifes endeavors. He helped me in many ways including a mutual interest in lifting weights and Pual was the perfect mentor when it came to increasing strength. As sometimes happens with good friends our jobs and lifes events changed and I lost contact with my friend Pual but his influence in my life and the special memories we had will always luv e on. Now I am sorry to learn of his passing he was a blessing to many, prayers to his family, rest in peace big man!!!!!! Your friend Mark Bostick.

“ Paul was my husband's best man when we married almost 37 years ago. He loved the Lord and his family. May God comfort Robin, Alicia, and Paul Michael.
