“ Papa.. I miss you so much. Life is never gonna be the same without you. I'm glad I used up my whole summer to be with you, I have no regrets about that. I miss you a lot, I miss all the pep talks about being good for my parents, and doing good in school. None of my basketball, or softball games have been the same as they were. Everytime I get on that court or on that field, I always look at the last place you sat in those bleachers and I pretend you there. I play my hardest and my best for you, I don't like playing sports but I want to make you proud when I get that scholarship and walk across that stage, and I know you will be proud of me. I love and miss you papa. I'll see you soon again. I can't wait to see you there at that gate to let me in. ❤️💙💜💖

“ I miss you so much, my love. I miss waking up beside you. I miss laying in your arms at night. I miss hearing your voice. I miss your smiles & laughter. I miss wiping your tears. I just miss all of you. My heart is empty, my mind is numb. I don't know why God took you from me. It's not fair. I love you so much and I miss you. I know you will always watch over me and you will always be in my heart, but it doesn't replace the emptiness I feel. I miss you so much, my love.

Love you mom! More than I can express right now. I feel empty to and life is the same. We will get through this and learn to adapt over time but we will never forget the glue that held us together.
