“ He was married when he married me in the early 1980s. He picked me up hitch hiking, I was 18. He had a 19 year old daughter. He lied about everything to get me to stay with him. One day his wife called and told me the truth. I packed my stuff and left. He stalked me, harrassed me, threatened me. His mother paid for the divorce to keep him from being charged with bigamy. Now that's a memory.
