“ First off, I don't know how to begin this because this woman was my life! She was my momma and I loved her dearly. She was a very proud woman with a good upbringing and she was definitely a hard worker... She loved hard and lived even harder!!! She was my daily, the one I would turn to when I needed to talk or just vent... She had a beautiful smile and always washed the cleanest of clothes (she used to always smell like downy) She died from the COVID-19 and when she caught it she gave it to her husband and he ended up sick too because she was infected first... He went to the hospital and left her there (she could barely even walk downstairs to get a cold drink) He knew she was dying and he allowed her to suffer... He has a life insurance policy out on her and he should be accounted for by the law but who could prove it? I feel as if her death could have been prevented if someone would have called an ambulances when she fell and was unresponsive... I love you mom!!! Sleep with the angels and know that I played it's a beautiful day for you... I miss you more than life and I am glad that you no longer feel any pain... Your finally with your daddy.... I love you!!!

Amber, I'm so so sorry. I just heard. Kenny ran into Ricky at the store a little while ago. I loved her dearly. You know we hung out every day in our teens and early twenties. She was so much fun. I dearly loved her. Praying for you.
