“ My dad was a wonderful and loving man. He loved jesus and all he came in contact with. I have so many fond memories of him it be hard to list them all. My most fondest two are every spring he brought me freash picked lilacs and ecery birthday but this one and one he couldn't get to me with me. I will forever remember and treasure my times with him. How sweet they were and too soon gone to make more with him.
