“ I believe you were my husband's best friend growing up. I'm sorry y'all lost touch with each other. Johnny Jones passed away December 16, 2015. I remember the Trowbridge family and how loving they were. If y'all are still there, please know I was thinking about Roy Gene this evening and just decided to look him up. Wish I had looked for him sooner. He had a good heart. I'm glad I knew him for a time. I used to love the story about his mom and her dancing duck, and I remember what a connection our kids and pets always had with Roy Gene, the kid and animal whisperer. I am so sorry for your loss. May God comfort you. Lovingly, Jeanie (Jones) Mundine
