“ So I remember when I worked at as a vendor at the Lowe's Shawn worked at. He was a very nice guy, and loved to joke from time to time. He had a smile on his face, and he will be missed. Glad to hear he was able to use talents God gave him. :) Prayers and hugs for his family.

“ I remember first starting at Lowe's and Shawn was my trainer and team leader. After going through all the training modules and Shawn giving me all the answers to the questions, I was trying to be a good new associate and follow all the rules, but Shawn would constantly say "you don't really have to do it that way," or "they really don't care about that." But it was an instant friendship from that very first day I met him in 2007. I will miss him.
