

Shawn W.R. McCamish

August 17, 2006 - September 16, 2024

It is with heavy hearts that we announce, Shawn Wilson Ray McCamish, 18, has passed away because of injuries sustained in an automobile accident on September 16, 2024. Shawn was born on August 17, 2006, to Shawn McCamish and Natalie Andrews. Shawn enjoyed playing football, basketball, playing video games, motorcycles, and working on cars. He was working as a general contractor for the past year and enjoyed his job. In his short 18 years Shawn touched many lives, when you met him, he had a presence about him that made him unforgettable. He enjoyed making people laugh, trying to be the “class clown,” and his smile was something that would stay with you. While our hearts are breaking, we know he is up there waiting to see us again someday.

Shawn was survived by his father Shawn and Brandi McCamish; mother Natalie Andrews; foster parents, Mike and Jessica McCamish. He had many siblings; Nate McCamish and Emily Higginbotham, Alex Parker and Sam Hatfield, Tawnya and Nick Abrams, Tabby and Jonathan Krolis, Dakota Sprinkles, Kirsten, Josh, and Zac Reynolds; grandparents Michelle and Doug McCamish; aunts Mary and Marvin Close, Shasta McCamish; cousins Justice Burkett, Mitchel and Andrea Howard, Bessie McCamish, Aaron, Billie, Stevie, Dani, Jacob Close. He was the uncle to Remington Goff, Nakota Dunn, Axel Howard, Waylon Burbridge, Charles and Oliver Abrams, Emilia and Anthony Krolis, and miss Maelynn Larie McCamish who will be joining us around November 30, 2024. He leaves behind many more friends and family who miss and love him very much.

Shawn was preceded in death by his grandfather Billy Gene McCamish and his foster mother Crystal McCamish.

We will be having a celebration of life ceremony to be announced at a later date.
