

Stephanie L. Warner

August 7, 1977 - March 17, 2025

Stephanie Lynn Warner, 47, passed away peacefully on March 17, 2025, surrounded by those who loved her. Born on August 7, 1977, Stephanie was a devoted mother, grandmother, sister, and friend whose kindness and love left a lasting impact on everyone who knew her.

She is survived by her two children, Tiffany Jo Morris and Aaron James Warner, and her beloved granddaughter, Olivia Mae Warner, who was the light of her life. Stephanie's love also extended deeply to her niece, Ivy Jo Grammer, and nephew, Ryatt Grammer, whom she cherished with all her heart. She is also survived by her partner, Gus Spence; her sister, Christina Jo Grammer; and her brother-in-law, Gy Grammer. Additionally, she leaves behind her daughter-in-law, Tori Faith Warner. Her warmth, laughter, and unwavering devotion to her family will be profoundly missed.

Stephanie's life was defined by the love she shared and the joy she found in caring for those closest to her. She had a generous spirit, a fierce loyalty to those she loved, and a heart that was always open.

A service to celebrate Stephanie's life will be held at Homer Cole Community Center in Pittsburg Kansas on Saturday, April 5th from 3pm until 6pm. Family and friends are invited to gather, share memories, and honor the beautiful life she lived.

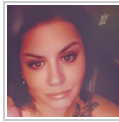

Though she is no longer with us, Stephanie's love and spirit will live on in the hearts of those who knew her.

Stephanie and I shared a lot of good memories especially when she was little I took her to the lakeside school carnival and she made me go through the haunted house with her and I was 9 months pregnant and I did it with her but then I was ready to go home because my back started hurting and we walked home which was about 3 blocks away from the school we got home and I had to lay down on the couch cause I was going into labor
