“ I'm still so shocked that I'm sharing memories of Taylor. Girl I love you so much and I wish everyday that you could see yourself through my eyes. My heart is so broken still just trying to accept that you're really gone. I would give anything in this world to get a message from you telling me how happy you and James are. You brought genuine happiness to my life everytime I seen or heard from you. You fought a battle I couldn't wish on anyone and I'm still so very proud of you. I love you everyday and I love you always. I wish I could see your smile again when I say that. You are a true gem Taylor I will miss you always. Rest easy beautiful girl I love you as high as the sky❤️

“ Taylor was one of my closest friends and her and I had a lot of adventures, and she will be missed. I'm sorry I couldn't be there that day...

“ I think Tailor was 9 years old when I met her at our Family Reunion on the farm. What I remember most is that she Loved Horses and Her Grandma Mary Anne. She had no fear and did not need a saddle to ride. Next Time I spent time with her we spent the day frog hunting with a 22 revolver (not the kind of thing you do with a young girl but she was a natural). My only regret is I did not spend more time with her but I'll always have those few days and will cherish them. You're in good hands now Tailor, give Grandma a hug for me !! Rest in Peace. Uncle Jack
