

Truman S. Hill

August 19, 1939 - May 29, 2016

PITTSBURG, KS - Truman S. Hill, 76, a musician, died Sunday, May 29, 2016 at Via Christi Village in Pittsburg. Arrangements are by Midland Cremation Society of Joplin.

Tribute Wall

SR

“ I knew him as "Joel Scott Hill." We met around 1980 in Ft. Bragg, CA. I was beginning life over again, & Joel & his wife at that time, Kathy, were used of The Lord to bring me to Christ. I will always owe each of them a debt of love, for knowing The Lord Jesus Christ has turned out to be the greatest & most important thing in my life. I'd visited Joel twice when he lived on 5th St. in Pittsburg, KS, & am glad that I did.

Steve Rusk - August 28, 2017 at 02:39 PM

BR

I grew up with Joel Hill in Linda Vista, San Diego. I remember Joel when he founded the Strangers with Bob Mosley (Moby Grape). What a great friend and music

Bob Reynolds` - March 08, 2021 at 07:13 PM

JM

Good friend and a great player and writer. I performed with him in the 1980s A great musician and writer, he ended up being a good friend.

Jeff Modesitt - July 03, 2021 at 08:58 PM