“ When I was growing up as a child the memories I have is on the weekend is going to her house and staying. I always thought she was a lot older than me but she was not . I was the baby of the family so I guess I acted younger but her and Suzan and Cindy would have so much fun but her brother would always scare me so bad she always took up for me and told brothers to stop scaring me . It was my favorite place to stay her mom dad always treated me liked I was one of there kids love all even later in years we grew apart but love than all Cathy Lovell Hacker. So sorry for there lost at a young age . Sorry I could be there but praying for you all love ❤️ you all
